

Instructions for Using the Generic Forms

If you have reached this page, you are most likely trying to figure out what specific forms you need to file with the Court so you can initiate whatever course of action it is you wish to pursue. In any event, working through a few simple questions should lead you to the correct document.

1) Who are you and what is your position in the Adjudication process?

- a. Are you claiming a water right?
- b. Are you objecting to a water right?
- c. Did you file a Notice of Intent to Appear with the Water Court?

2) What is the legal action that you wish to take or initiate?

- a. I want to object to another person's water right claim, or my own?
- b. I want to request an extension of time to file an objection to another person's water right claim, or my own?
- c. I want to request to be included and allowed to participate in a specific Water Court proceeding, even though I did not claim a water right involved in that proceeding, or officially object to it?
- d. I want to make corrections to a water right claim that you filed?
- e. I want to offer a personal statement in support or opposition to some element of a water right claim?
- f. I want to withdraw one of the following:
 - i. my status as a Notice Of Intent to Appear party;
 - ii. an objection that I previously made to someone else's water right claim; or
 - iii. my personal claim to a water right.
- g. I need to submit a Proposed Pre-Hearing Order. This is the correct action for you only if:
 - i. the Water Master presiding over your case has issued a Scheduling Order;
 - ii. formal discovery has been completed in your case; and
 - iii. the next deadline in the Scheduling Order is to file a Proposed Prehearing Order.
